

Epiphany - In Deep Ecumenism

Daring to follow
a star of revelation we venture beyond our own territory sacrifice security encourage each other to journey toward the Christ following only the true Light.

Strong enough to trust strangers feeling fragile - lost foreigners we ask them the Way and venture out into the dark following Spirited instructions in an unknown tongue.

We are courageous Christians secure only in our faith yearning so for the Holy birth that we move like labour with the life force toward the Creche
even though it is in their country now.

We bow.

Ellie Barrington 2009